WE CARE

Dear Valued Client,

In order to enhance yours and your pets' experience here at Alvin animal Clinic, we would like to invite you to be part of our monthly e-newsletter. We will be starting our e-newsletters after the first of the year, 2010. We hope this will provide you with more education regarding your pets' healthcare and more up to date information about our clinic. These newsletters will come from our clinic only and will not be accompanied by any advertisements or offers from any third parties. Your emails will not be available for public view nor will they be sold or given to any other company. We will only be using your emails for e-newsletters or as e-mail correspondence directly from the clinic. We have received your email information from your client information form you filled out for us when arriving at our clinic. If you do not wish to be a part of the e-newsletter campaign, please respond to this email with your request. Otherwise, we will keep your name on this list.

Thank you for your continued patronage of Alvin Animal Clinic

Sincerely,
Alvin Animal Clinic management
